More than 70% of sales were generated from the Xbox 3 360 versions. [112] In the US, it was the second best-selling retail game, selling over 1.82 million units. [113] [114] It was the most best selling game in the United Kingdom and the best selling game in the USA in 2012. [115] [116] On November 1, 2012, Take-Two Interactive announced that I had sent 5 million copies. Revenue and gains for Take-TWO in the second quarter exceeded the company's expectation, with the success of Borderlands 2 being cited as one of the factors that contribute. [117] In February 2014, 2K Games announced that the game had sold more than 8.5 million stamps, making it the most successful commercial lask for the editor. [118] sold more than 12 million in the 2013 Marion. [119] In 2019, Take-Two announced that the game had sent more than 20 million units and added that the game was able to keep 1 million usu Monthly rivers almost eight years after its launch. [120] Controls on sexism reached a mom before the game's scheduled launch after the designer of John Hemingway Boxes told Eurogamer that Mechromancer mode would present "The Nicotifid Skill Tree" for people who "Sugar the gunmen of the first person." CEO Randy Pitchford later clarified that the name of the skills is "best friends forever" and that Hemingway's description was just a "personal anecdote." [121] After the launch, some fans criticized Tina's character for "transmitting racism," she is a white girl who uses African American lving English. Burch replied by saying that she can change her character in subsequent DLCs. [122] The other Gearbox project, Colonial Marines, developed in partnership with Sega, was in Problems During Borderlands 2. Sources Insider claimed that, after the success of the first Borderlands, the Cabbio Box has allocated almost all of its resources and work to develop the sequence and Duke Nukem Forever and neglected the development of colonial marines, outsourcing their development for external developers. Colonial Naval Marines were launched in 2013 and received negative strins. [123] Wade Callender, who worked at Gearbox as a lawyer from 2010 to 2018, sued Pitchford in January 2019 and claimed to have received $ 12 million Royalties from Take-Two intending to fund the development of the game through his personal company, Pitchford Entertainment. [124] The case was dismissed without prejudice to the Court on October 2 of the same year.
